TO THE CITIZENS OF RENO.

I HAVE BEEN A RESIDENT OF YOUR town for three years, and outside of my own business have not seen a decent pair of boots that we made here. In order, therefore, to extend to everyone facilities for obtaining really first-class boots and shoes, I have sent to San Francisco for two A. No. 1 mechanics, the best to be found in the country, and shall run (as heretofore) a prime first-class shop. This enlargement of my stock and facilities will entail heavy extra expense, and I look and trust, therefore, to Reno's citizens, and all the people generally desirous of obtaining the very best of workmanship, to aid me with their increased patronage. First-class material, first-class workmen and first-class work, at living rates, is the motto of my coat of arms inscribed on the banner floating from my castle walls. Respectfully,

A DESPICABLE SCAMP.

The country is now to be entertained with an effort on the part of Major Azor H. Nickerson of the regular army to save his "honor." Nickerson had a faithful, respectable wife and a little daughter in 1880. In June of that year he induced her to go with the child to Germany, for a temporary residence there. He accompanied her to the ship, bade her an affectionate good-by, and for two years wrote frequently and made regular remittances for her support. Then the letters ceased, and after waiting for a year she received a telegram from her mother in San Francisco advising her that her husband had secured a fraudulent divorce and was again married. This was in April last. The betrayed wife at once commenced proceedings to assert her rights. It was ascertained that the divorce was procured in a Philadelphia court, though Nickerson was a resident of another State. To give color to his claim of citizenship in Pennsylvania, he hired a room in Philadelphia and occupied it thirteen nights in fourteen months, spending the rest of the time in Washington. The cause for which he procured a divorce was desertion. He swore falsely that he had been a resident of Philadelphia since 1880—two years before the hiring of his room—and that his wife's desertion dated from July in the same year. The wife had fortunately preserved his letters and the proof of his remittances for two years. His last letter was May 31st, 1882, twenty-nine days after he had filed his libel against her divorce, but not a word of complaint was offered, neither was any intimation conveyed of his proceedings. The wife has won her case, the court having set aside the divorce as fraudulent, and denounced the course of the major in public court in the severest terms. The Eastern exchange from which the facts are gathered says: Nickerson suddenly disappeared when the decision of the Court was known. The fellow had a strange idea to the last, it seems, that some compromise would be arranged by which public scandal was to be averted. The officers of the army are now searching for him, and it is certain that as soon as found he will be court-martialed and dismissed from the army in disgrace, his pay having already been stopped. Then he will find himself with two wives on his hands, and a criminal prosecution for bigamy would probably land him in the penitentiary for a term of years. Nickerson appears to have trusted to his wife's extraordinary amiability and enduring affection for himself to shield him from the legal consequences of his crime. But before he gets through with his troubles he will realize the full force of Shakespeare's remark that "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned." And every hater of that most despicable of all meannesses, the wronging of an honorable woman and faithful wife, will applaud, as the vials of her fury are poured out upon the scamp.

An Enthusiastic Democrat.

Hon. Henry Watterson telegraphs from New York city to the Courier-Journal that the work of the Ohio Democrats is received there by the Democrats with enthusiasm and by the Republicans with alarm; that the nomination of Judge Hoadley was not only the wisdom of the moment, but will prove the logic of the future. Mr. Watterson says: "It may be that we have an easier thing in Ohio than it appears, and that we can elect anybody, but I don't believe it." Watterson then has a hearty tribute to Judge Hoadley and to the platform, and predicts success in Ohio for the nominee. The dispatch concludes: "By the way, what was that I heard the other day about the old ticket?"

Seth Driggs, of Canons Station, Connecticut, thinks he may claim to be the oldest Freemason in the United States. Born at Middletown in 1798, he took seven degrees in 1816, was made Knight Templar in 1817 and soon after received the degree of grand inspector of 33 degrees.

The Ohio Democrats reaffirm the resolutions of the State Conventions of Ohio of 1880, 1881 and 1882, and the Democratic National Conventions of 1872, 1876 and 1880. Therefore a political prophet is needed to define the present status of an Ohio Democrat.

Judge Hoadley, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Ohio, is the attorney of the Standard Oil Company. In Iowa, the Democratic nominee for Governor is the attorney of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad Company.

During the run of the Independence-Navajo mill, which commenced on the 20th of July, 1882 and ended on the 10th instant, it produced $818,866 45.

TO THE WOMEN OF THE UNITED STATES.

DEAR SISTERS:—For three years past we have been publishing the Anti Polygamy Standard, a monthly journal devoted to the object of suppressing polygamy in Utah and other Territories of the United States. During this period we have labored under many disadvantages in not having printing material and presses of our own, yet in spite of many discouragements and obstacles, working right in the heart of the enemy's camp, we believe, we have succeeded in arousing public opinion throughout the country, against the monster iniquity of the Mormon Church, and the dangers which menace the Republic in the constant spread of this dire enemy to the unity and purity of homes. This labor we desire to continue until that vicious doctrine is completely exterminated, and the women now held in such revolting chains, be loosed from their shackles.

To enable us to accomplish this end, we desire to place the Standard upon a more permanent footing, by purchasing such material as is necessary to conduct the business of the paper, and without which, it cannot be carried on successfully.

You will understand the urgent necessity of maintaining the paper, when we tell you it is the only medium by which we can make our influence felt with the people of the United States, from whom the remedy for the evil is to be obtained. Until the people are fully educated to the importance of dealing with Polygamy, Congress will never enact any adequate laws for its suppression.

In addition to its main object, the Standard will be an organ for the local Temperance and Benevolent Organizations, will also devote considerable attention to the educational interests of the Territory, and will aim in every number to furnish something that will tend to elevate and Christianize the homes of Utah.

We now appeal to all friends of morality and progress, and to lovers of American Institutions, to aid us as liberally as they can, both by making donations to the printing fund and sending subscriptions for the paper, which is only one dollar a year. We want to raise outside of Utah, about $1,500; the balance needed, will be furnished by the Gentiles here, who have already been taxed far beyond their means, in maintaining this unequal conflict for so many years. We trust, dear Sisters, you will respond to our appeal at once, and let your individual amounts be ever so small, remember our object is, that the breaking of women hearts, and the destruction of the purity of homes might be made to cease. All communications to be addressed to the Secretary of the Standard Publishing Company, Box 453, Salt Lake City, Utah, who will send receipts for all amounts received. We remain, Cordially Yours,

Mrs. SARAH A. COOK, President.

Mrs. JENNIE A. FROST, Sec'y.

I commend this good work to all those to whom this appeal may come. A work greater than any elsewhere, is to be done. Help to do it.

ELI H. MURRAY, Governor of Utah.

We heartily join Gov. Murray in endorsing this appeal, the object is one which all Christian people should aid.

Celebrating Beecher's Seventieth Birthday.

The arrangements for the celebration in the Brooklyn Academy of Music, on June 25, of Beecher's seventieth birthday have been completed. It is expected that Beecher's friends will fill the academy. Among others, General Grant, Mayor Low, of Brooklyn, and the Reverends Armitage and Collyer will speak. The Rev. Dr. Charles Hall, of the Episcopal Church, will preside. In his note of acceptance Beecher says: "If the request come from personal friends, only, or from the church and society, I should have begged to let my next birthday pass silently away. But this invitation is from the citizens at large, in every walk of life, of widely different views, both of politics and religion, many eminent in their several professions. I have, therefore, accepted with profound emotion, the honor tendered me."

Senator Plumb, of Kansas, is sanguine of a Republican triumph in the Nation next year. He bases his expectations on the belief that the party will be better organized than then ever before and will make a steady and strong march to victory. As to candidates he has no choice, and thinks all conjecture in that direction premature. The party is in a thinking attitude and not disposed to make up its mind in a hurry. Senator Plumb, like every other sagacious Republican leader, is evidently undismayed by the loud boasts of the Democrats. He has become used to seeing the latter carry the country one year before the election occurs.—Enterprise.

Home Comfort.

After a Rainy Ride a Country Physician Tells What He Thinks of Some People.

"I wish to gracious some people would learn when they need a doctor and when they don't," exclaimed Doctor E., as he entered his house in a cosy little village in the interior of the State of New York, after a tedious night ride of many miles. "I have been down among the mountains to see a man, who the messenger said, was very sick and not likely to live till morning, unless he had immediate help; and found him suffering from the sharp attack of colic, which his family might have relieved in ten minutes, if they had a grain of sense and two or three simple remedies in the house. But no; they must remain ignorant as pigs, and when the least ache or pain takes them, send for a doctor, whether they ever pay him or not."

"Why, Doctor, what kind of simple remedies, as you call them, do you expect to keep in the house?" asked his wife, as she poured him a cup of hot tea.

"In this case," answered the Doctor, "if they had only put a BENSON'S OAPINE POROUS PLASTER on the man's stomach, he would have been all right in an hour, and saved me a dreary ride."

In all ordinary complaints it cures at once.

All diseases are eliminated from the system by what may be roughly called expulsion or extraction, or by a union of two processes. Benson's Plaster promotes both. It incites the torpid organs to act, and sends its healing, soothing influence through the myriad pores of the skin. All other plasters oblige the patient to wait. They give him hope for to-morrow. Benson's Plaster gives him help to-day. Which is better, do you think? Buy the OAPINE and keep it in the house. Price 25 cents.
